JOB TITLE:	Senior Organizer
ORGANIZATION:	Boston Tenant Coalition (BTC)
REPORTS TO:	Executive Director of Boston Tenant Coalition

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

Boston Tenant Coalition (BTC) is seeking a Senior Organizer. BTC is a coalition of grassroots neighborhood groups, community development corporations, housing and homeless organizations that promotes affordable housing in Boston. We are organized to defend and expand the rights of tenants, and push city, state and federal government, as well as private industry, to address the needs of low-income tenants and residents. We operate from a core belief that more affordable housing needs to be both permanent and targeted to Boston's low-income populations.

BTC is currently coordinating a citywide coalition working to improve the City of Boston's Inclusionary Development Program (IDP), playing a lead role in the development of the City's new fair housing plan, and supporting efforts to get more housing out of the speculative market and into permanent affordability. BTC is also very active in statewide tenant rights legislation and pushing for increasing resources for low-income housing. In addition, BTC operates the Michael Stone Scholars Fund, which supports participatory action research by a UMass Boston graduate or undergraduate student.

The Senior Organizer will work closely with the Executive Director on BTC Campaigns, but also lead and represent BTC in coalitions and campaigns that BTC is a member of but not leading. The ideal candidate will also possess an ability to cultivate buy-in and support from coalition partners and engage our key constituents and reflect their aspirations.

- Work with Executive Director to maintain regular communication with coalition member groups to build and strengthen BTC and its campaigns, recruit new member organizations, and formalize and strengthen its membership program.
- Coordinate the Michael Stone Scholars Fund Program, including coordinating the Stone Scholars Advisory Committee. Oversee the scholar during their internship, with the help of the Executive Director and a Stone Scholar Steering Committee member.
