Pine Street Inn
Boston, MA

THE SEARCH

Pine Street Inn (PSI), a nationally recognized nonprofit that provides a full spectrum of homeless services and is dedicated to ending homelessness in the Boston area, seeks a Deputy Director to join its leadership team.

Established in 1969 as an emergency shelter, Pine Street Inn has grown to become the largest nonprofit resource for homeless and formerly homeless people in New England, serving more than 2,000 individuals daily and 10,000 annually. The Mission of Pine Street Inn is to partner with homeless individuals to help them move from the streets and shelter to a home and to assist formerly homeless individuals in retaining housing. The organization provides street outreach, emergency services, supportive housing, job training, and connections to employment. Pine Street Inn has earned its reputation as a tireless advocate for collaborative solutions to end homelessness.

The Deputy Director will play a critical role as a member of the senior leadership team. While upholding the organization's mission and values, the Deputy Director will ensure that the staff and programs receive strategic, tactical, and operational support to achieve their goals. They will also serve as a stand-in for the President and Executive Director with both internal and external stakeholders. The position requires significant visibility and positive, close collaboration between and among agency leaders, programs, and departments as well as external collaborators. Responsibilities include strategic planning and program oversight, external relations, supervision of senior staff, and stewarding organizational culture.
