

Ten-Year Impact of CDCs in Massachusetts

Massachusetts community development corporations have a real and lasting impact on our Commonwealth. During the last decade (2004-2013), CDCs have:

- Built or preserved 13,011 homes
- Created or preserved 24,567 job opportunities
- Helped 15,073 small business owners and entrepreneurs start, grow or stabilize their businesses
- Engaged 20,538 community leaders to help shape and guide local neighborhoods
- Supported 328,362 families with CDC programs, economic opportunities, housing, job training and other services
- Invested $2.9 billion into Massachusetts communities

Data sourced from MACDC's Annual GOALS Reports - <http://www.macdc.org/macdc-goals-report>

